- any individual working as a 'registered' nutritionist (Association for Nutrition or any organisation superseding this) or Associate nutritionist, or 'registered' dietitian (Health and Care Professions Council: HCPC)
- Applicants should be working in the food, drink or pharmaceutical industry. This includes food producers, manufacturers, trade associations, retailers and caterers*.
- Membership is also extended to nutritionists and dietitians who are working in the industry who are eligible for registration with the Association for Nutrition but have yet to register.
- Freelancers, who meet the membership criteria, are eligible to join but must provide details of their industry clients, and any vested interests, on the application form.
- Applicants should hold an appropriate/recognised nutritional or dietetic qualification from a University or have undertaken a similar course of study
- All other applicants are considered on a case by case basis
- The membership year runs from April 5th each year and is subject to a modest fee (£40 for one year).
- It is the members' responsibility to inform the committee when they change roles and/or organisations to ensure eligibility criteria is still met. Should this occur during a membership year and eligibility criteria isn't met a suitable refund of fees will be arranged. Decisions are at the discretion of the committee.

The groups' aims

- Are to raise and maintain the profile of nutritionists and dietitians working within the above industries
- For members to be seen as a credible source of nutrition information, knowledge and expertise
- To share and disseminate best practice and up-to-date nutrition science, providing opportunities for CPD by way of regular meetings
- To facilitate networking between members
